2014 IU Latino Alumni Association Undergraduate Scholarship

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Latino Alumni Association Undergraduate Scholarship ("scholarship") is to award and recognize students who are prepared academically, involved in their community, exhibit leadership qualities benefiting the IU Latino community and work to foster an appreciation of the Latino experience in the United States.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Be a full-time, undergraduate IU student currently and during the Fall 2014 semester;
- Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0;
- Have completed at least 24 undergraduate credits;
- Have graduated from a high school located in the U.S. or its commonwealth; and
- Agree to participate in the LAA activities, specifically the alumni reunion and mentorship program for at least one semester, if selected as a scholarship recipient.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicants are evaluated on the following: academic standing, community service, essay response, financial need, involvement with, and leadership within, the IU Latino community. All applications are reviewed by the scholarship selection committee. The top ranked applications will be considered finalists and be required to participate in an interview with the selection committee. Additional information may be requested.

ESSAY #1 (limit to 500 words)

Write an essay describing your current goals as well as your goals after graduation. You can include both career and personal goals in your essay. If you are currently taking steps toward achieving your goals, explain those. You can include any other information that you believe will help the committee understand why you are a good fit for this award. (Please attach with your completed application)

ESSAY #2 (limit to 500 words)

Write an essay describing who or what influenced your pursuit of a college education and/or your choice of major or desired career path. For example: Was there someone who served as a mentor to you? Did you have to overcome any obstacles? Are you a first-generation college student or the first in your family to attend college? (Please attach with your completed application)
