Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs

Won-Joon Yoon Scholarship Application Form

(Application Deadline: Extended until December 28, 2015)

Description and Guidelines

The Won-Joon Scholarship competition is sponsored by Indiana University's Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs. Two scholarships of up to $1,500 each will be awarded to students whose academic, professional and personal accomplishments, and goals exhibit tolerance, understanding, and commitment to service.

Eligibility

Applicants may be students from any discipline or department on the Bloomington campus; must be enrolled as full-time students and continuing as students in the Spring 2016 semester. US citizenship is not required.

Review Criteria

Evaluators will consider academic achievement as well as professional and personal involvement in services organizations and support as indicated by letters of reference. All applications will be screened by a selection committee comprised of IU faculty and staff.

Application Components and Submission Instructions

There are four components to the application. Applicants must complete the first three components, combine them into one document and submit via email to demaschl@indiana.edu

1. Application form (page 2-4 of this form)
2. Transcript (Provide a PDF copy of an unofficial IU transcript)
3. Resume (Include post-secondary institutions and degrees obtained; work and volunteer experience; and involvement in other extra-curricular activities. Two page maximum. Convert to a PDF file and include with application)
4. References (Submit two references electronically. At least one reference must be from an Indiana University faculty member. Graduate students will be not considered as faculty members. The reference form is available at: Won-Joon Yoon Scholarship Reference Form)
