

HIGH SCHOOL
HONORS
SEMINAR

ONCE UPON A TIME:
DISCOVERING THE KOREAN PERFORMING ART OF P'ANSORI AND WAYS OF SINGING TALES

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 2002

8:30AM - 2:00PM

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Tentative Schedule

8:30 am Registration & Refreshments

8:45 am Introduction

Mary R. Hayes, Outreach Supervisor, East Asian Studies Center

9:00 am The Korean Singer of Tales: An Introduction

Hilary Finchum-Sung, EASC Special Projects Assistant and Ph.D. candidate in Ethnomusicology, will introduce students to the themes of p'ansori, the skills required of the performers, and the modern performance context. Students will view film clips of p'ansori performances, including excerpts from a famous Korean love story, Chunhyanga. A creative small group activity is also planned.

10:00 am Break

10:15 am Lecture and demonstration

Dr. Chan Park, Assistant Professor, Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures, The Ohio State University.

11:30 am Lunch (Bring sack lunches; EASC will provide snacks & drinks)

12:15 pm P'ansori workshop

Professor Park will lead an interactive lesson on p'ansori performance.

1:45 pm Closing Remarks and Evaluations

East Asian Studies Center
Indiana University
Memorial Hall West 207
1021 East Third Street
Bloomington, IN 47405-7005

812/855-3765
800/441-3272
812/855-7762 (fax)
easc@indiana.edu
www.indiana.edu/~easc
