

HIGH SCHOOL
HONORS
SEMINAR

*Motion Pictures
and Motion in Pictures*

FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 2005

8:30AM - 2:00PM

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Tentative Schedule

- 8:30 am Registration & Refreshments
- 8:45 am Introduction
Anne Prescott, Outreach Coordinator, East Asian Studies Center
- 9:00 am Contemporary Japanese film
Dr. Gregory Waller, Professor and Chair of the Department of Communication and Culture. Professor Waller will be discussing contemporary Japanese film, while focusing on a few Japanese filmmakers.
- 10:00 am Chinese film
Lori Hitchcock, a graduate student in Communication and Culture, will be discussing martial arts in Cantonese and Mandarin cinema.
- 11:00 am Lunch (Bring sack lunches; EASC will provide snacks & drinks)
- 11:35 am Korean and Chinese hands-on exercises
Participants will divide into two smaller groups.
Group A: Learn tai chi from the IU Tai Chi Club.
Group B: Yoonhee Chang, a graduate student in Ethnomusicology, will be discussing Korean national identity and teach students a traditional Korean folksong.
- 12:35 pm Korean and Chinese hands-on exercises
Group A: Yoonhee Chang, a graduate student in Ethnomusicology, will be discussing Korean national identity and teach students a traditional Korean folksong.
Group B: Learn tai chi from the IU Tai Chi Club.
- 1:35 pm Closing Remarks and Evaluations

East Asian Studies Center
Indiana University
Memorial Hall West 207
1021 East Third Street
Bloomington, IN 47405-7005

812/855-3765
800/441-3272
812/855-7762 (fax)
easc@indiana.edu
www.indiana.edu/~easc
