Diary of Lieutenant Frank Hughes

Edited by Norman Niccum*

Frank Hughes of Adams, Decatur County, Indiana, was commissioned as a first lieutenant of Company E, Thirty-seventh Regiment Indiana Volunteers on September 10, 1861. Seventeen months later he was promoted to captain which position he held until July 28, 1864, when he died of wounds at Nashville, Tennessee.1

The diary covers the period from May 4 to July 9, 1862, with the first entry made at Athens, Alabama, and the last item entered at Madison, Georgia. On May 9, 1862, Hughes and approximately forty other members of Company E were captured at the Battle of Elk River. The prisoners were marched through Moulton to Tuscaloosa. Their stay, however, was short since they were ordered to Montgomery on May 21. Nine days later they were transferred to Macon, Georgia, where they remained until July 9, when the prisoners were ordered to Madison.2

The significance of the diary lies in its portrayal of conditions in Confederate prisons in which Hughes was confined. There are also many passages referring to the beauty of some of the Southern towns. Then too, Hughes apparently was impressed with the vegetation in Dixie and often commented upon it.

Athens Ala

Sunday Morn. May 4th 62

Last night Capt. Lord & I received orders from General Turchin to take our respective companies toward Elk river & guard R.R. Bridges. Capt. Lord takes first Post at 10 miles from Athens. I go on to Mill Creek 12 mile farther within 2 miles of Elk River Bridge.3 Some sprinkling of rain to day. Orderly Harvey E. Rickets A. Knapp & I proceed on a scout after dark to Mr W. Holts. Make a trip out over the Mounts return 12½ rained very hard I can remember all we done that night. I changed relief and laid down to rest.

May 5th Rained all day to day we laid in Bunks.

May 6 nothing of any importance occurs to day.

May 7th We have had two reliefs on guard only. Tonight I make three by reducing the number on Post I have become acquainted with the country now. Find nearly all the Shot guns are out in service. Swango meets his accident the eving by a pistol shot in the mouth. Goes to Town.

May 8th Lieut Shaffer went to Bethel with a squad of men yesterday reports all quiet on the river To day was pleasant & fair I insist upon vigilant guarding. Some think it useless.

May 9th A beautiful morning I take a squad and go to the old Mill for corn meal. We return at 10 A.M. Capt Connet arrives at 10¼ with more men all have a good time congratulating reading letter &c when firing is heard on the Hill, we know in an instant that the Enemy. We prepare for action in a moment Deploy as skirmishers. Cavalry are swarming around us hailing Buck & Ball upon us constant firing is kept up upon both sides for 25 minutes, we surrender to overwhelming force of 750 cavalry men. The wounded are carried to gether at the springs. Robt Heaton & A. C. Scull were killed. Morgan Jordan, William Crow & Sherley Tillson were mortally wounded realize that we are pillaged by the Rangers. Blankets coats and some watches were taken from the boys. We see horses and men lying upon every side. Prisoners are all collected under guard and put on a quick march from the Battle ground to Elk River Capt Connet received seven Buck and ball shots but not dangerously wounded. Those slightly wounded were made to walk but Capt Connet and five of the boys were convey in wagons that afternoon. Crossed the Elk River at 3 P.M. stop at 5 & get some corn bread go on the march till 8 P.M. all get in oxwagons drive all night arrived at daylight at Col Woodwards camp—remain till 4 P.M. of this day the 19th and start to the Tennessee R. cross at 9 P.M. on a ferry—and camp on the south banks of the Tennessee.

Sunday May 11th A beautiful morning walked 4 miles took breakfast and continued on to Courtland Left Capt Connet, O. M. Garret H. Creed A. O. Scull Jr Hanger We ascertained yesterday that we had killed about 13 men & two of their best captains 80 of the Texas Rangers were the (1st) first Kentucky cavalry C. S. Army who captured our little Band of 45 men Capt H. E. Lord & Lieut Shaffer were about ¾ Mile up the creek were picked up by Texas Rangers Marched 14 miles today

Monday Morning May 12 Slept in a Cotton Gin House last night take breakfast this morning at 8 start on our March to Moulton 173000 Miles toward Old Tuscaloosa. We begin to realize in the most desolate barren and God forsaken country our eyes ever beheld—Arrive at Moulton at 4 P.M. take quarters in the Court House—The Yahoos Male & female turn out in mass to see the Yankees Capt Hervey of Kentucky caval has his company under vigilant guard while in charge of the Yankees seems to be opposed to this thing of Sentine sleeping while on Post.

Diary of Lieutenant Frank Hughes

May 13th Marched to Phaxtons shop by the old school House now a Shoe Shop We went wagons to day at ten A.M. 48 Prison hauled in 3 wagons drawn by Mules.

May 14th passed Thorn Hill Springs at 4 P.M. We see the Magnolia [?] to day in the Mounts 24 miles to day.

May 15th Travelled 22 miles over a miserable rough road country Corea ford has been of the roughs cast of course corn meal with sitting made into hard bread without salt— We get some poor Mast fed Hog meat

May 16th 1862 Travel 30 miles today pass through a section of find country timbered by pine exclusively—

May 17 Leave Mr Thomas this morning early. Girls were kind us to us to Swope Inda We travel 16 miles and arrive at us to Tuscaloosa at 4 P.M. Yankees are not so rare here but still the Buterwere we alle come from Precious Youths of southern shalivary go-bow, like unto Josephs coat of many colours. Mr Pea —— [?] of the old tavern stand formerly called the U. S. House. Our heart the sick and starving and dying prisoners who are already here about persons sent to Montgomery Ala. The sight of iron gates in the in the Shot gun confederacy

Sunday May 18th 1862 All quiet this morning some of the boys are actually singing and whistling others gently steal a while a way of the other rooms. A prisoner dies of actual starvation in a room near

Mon 19th Corn Bread & Beef to day as usual in very small quantities 5 or 6 prisoners are now in Irons for attempting to run away Serg Dykes young & Cary are paroled for the purpose of attendig to small Serg Felt are in the 2nd floor near us. * Capt Lord Lieut Shaffer & I

Tues 20th Prisoners were removed this morning down to the old paper mill Much more comfortable quarters The Boat Demopolis comes to night at 7½ We suspicion that we are under marching orders

Wed 21st Sure enough we are ordered to Montgomery 1500 Pack baggage and Hospital goods to the boat all on board at 5 P.M. The sick were packed in close order other prisoners were piled all around the guards at 5 P.M. Steamer pushed out on the Black Warrior

* In the diary in pencil fills has been written over Iowa. There had resigned on December 31, 1861. Official Army Register of the Volunteer Forces of the United States for the Years 1861, '62, '63, '64, all were pleased with the idea of a change as it could not possibly be worse than in the city of Pith [?] River barely navigable because of low water. A very narrow but deep stream banks are from 30 to 50 feet high. Water is frequently 70 feet higher than at present. The banks are now overhung with willows, live oak cypress & many other trees on which the Bamboo Briar hangs its beautiful tendril vines. Passed gun shot at 9 P.M. This is a narrow defile one hundred yards in length the sides of the heat both raising the bushes we passed with an hours putting and dragging through the bushes pass Green wood bend at seven o clock

May 22 now 60 miles from Tuscaloosa by water & 28 by land. Water Turky Wild Ducks—Crane white & gray. Snakes & alligators are seen to day in abundance. Prison fare very low to day. Army at the junctium of Tom-bigbee river. The Bigbee is some what larger than the Warrior and both together forming the Tombigbee makes a good stream for boating. Here we see the beautiful Magnolia in full bloom.
May 23rd 1862 passed out of the TomBigbee into the Alabama River this morning at 1 A.M. Distance from Tuscaloosa by water 320 miles by Land 160 from the mouth of the Bigbee we pass down the Alabama 10 miles to Mount Vernon we land here from 3 A.M. till 9 A.M. This is Hqrs of the Regiment which furnished our escort from Tuscaloosa to Montgomery. Col. R. H. Smith. We are now within 55 miles of Mobile. Yesterday evening at the St Vincent, the Wm. Eagenly Henry King the three are lashed abreast going up the Alabama indicative that there is something Billious down about Mobile.
May 24th 1862 The broad stream of Alabama river is pleasant to travel on banks are low allowing passengers to see over into Dixie frequently espying a corn patch way down in the wilderness down in the Alabama cloudly to day rains this afternoon very hard—cane brake and cypress swamps swamps are now in view. Distance from Mobile to Montgomery by water 500 miles. Selma is a beautiful town on the west banks of the Alabama quite a large number of our prisoners here including Gen Prentice.
Sunday 25th 62 A dark day overcast but our spirits are lively prospects fair. We met th southern repubilc this forenoon. This Dixie prid Double Decked steamer—As far as I know all are satisfied about as soon be here travelling through Dixie at her own expense as any other way or means of enjoyment. This afternoon I commenced this memorandum of items taking them hastily. This is 9 9/12 we are nearing the town of Selma I shall retire after we pass Selma—The Yahoos still afford amusement for the crew 3 prisoners were buried to day.
Monday 26th. We are steaming up the Proud Alabama this forenoon a fair day—Arrive at Montgomery at one P.M. at 3 we are marched up to the old Penitentiary Work House. Yesterday about 100 prisoners were sent Home on Parole. All the commissary are detained. We find none but western Prisoners here except a few from the Gunboats. All sleep on the 2nd floor.
Tuesday 27 We are ordered to change prisons—for one at Chattanooga this place is to found 300 yds from the former we are all sold on entering the filthy stinking old cotton ware House instead of going on the cars. But still this is only slight disappointment again Description list is taken to day—
Wed 28 Here in the old Montgomery Jail we meet prisoners from all the Western States. Commissioned & non c only. We are told to day that all are to be paroled soon. Sent Home by way of Savannah Men amuse themselves as best a Yankee can Manufacturing pipes Rings Rhymes & c—Thu 29 Discription list was taken yesterday which indicates that they intend to parole us soon but we cant believe anything we hear. We draw 2 days rations to day forour Trip. Now ordered to Macon Georgia. Well till all right; Any thing to keep up a harmony of good
Fri. 30th Men begin to crow at daybreak, all are up preparing for a trip to Macon. on the cars—Leave Montgomery at 7 A.M. at 7 P.M. we are at Columbus Ga. Leave Columbus at 9 travel all night arrive at Macon Ga at 7 A.M.
Sat 31st Columbus Ga was a very pretty town of 1600 inhabitants on the Chattahoochea River 100 miles from Montgomery—but we find Macon a still better town we are marched out into Camp Ogletropes (Fair Ground) where we find quite a number of Noncom prisoners all entire camp. Officers—128, none are separate from privates by cooking & sleeping only 9 days provis issued to night.
Sun June 1st Tis a beautifully clear morn. All are becoming naturalized to this place. Generally thinking of staying a while now. Privates are expecting to go home next week. I hope this will be done. However we find comfort here to what we have had cars running very busy to day & night.
Mond June 2nd Yesterday eveng we learned that they were fighting at Richmond a thousand reports are going around every man judges as his mind dictates. Lieut Col Adams is permitted to go out to town at high rates. The chat is now that Richmond is gone up. Spirits at Tues 3rd Nothing occurs of unusual importance to day, but a great deal of anxiety is manifested about the impending Battle.
Wed 4th Rain Yesterday and last night the first I have seen for a fair 9th Iowa an old chum at Brookville now makes a good companion in Battle.
Thus 5th Our gallant old Kentuck contrives to get a paper East & West Just Such as was promised by our Generals 2 months day However but little Sickness with us. yet Mr. Vanderell Co. K. 11th now have to clime trees brake the dead limbs hunt for chips to cook with we have been promised wood for 3 day but no [wood] jet [jet] Our Rations are going short—

Fri. June 5th A fair day. We get no paper to day but learn that the Rebels make no report on Corinth. This indicates to us that they have gone up the spout. But they report StoneWall Jackson to be Marching on to Baltimore with 90000 troops 3 guns are fired in the night.

Sat June 7th The firing of cannon last night proved to be only only from extra rations of whiskey. To day we learn that Corinth was taken By Hallock Buel &c. To night we receive new recruits from Chattanooga. They confirm the loss at Corinth of 12000 Rebel Prisoners. Gen Mitchell took Chattanooga yesterday— Our chances for staying in Dixie seem fair for Commissioned officers.

Sun 8— A strong force of prisoners detailed on Police duty. Clean up our camp. All is clean and neat to day. Tis a beautiful Sabbath to us here notwithstanding they deny us privilege of church praying among us. The Boys last night brought the first word I had heard from our Division since our capture. Two Ladies from the city visit our Hospital this evening. Many eyes are gazing at us over the paling fence— A calm & pleasant Evening The music in our prison both vocal & local has a charm for me to night— What few old worn out Books we have a[ne] bustling sought after.

Mon 9th A pleasant shower of rain this morning. Clears of by 10 AM. Lien Jackson 12th Iowa died at 10 1/4 A.M. We gain information that Beauregards army was all captured Richmond taken at the Point of Bayoret and Stone Wall Jackson is taken prisoner good if true.

Tues 10. Nothing unusual to day
Wed 11. We find that some of the late reports prove false. but still the Rebels wear very long faces indicative of a prospective downfall of the Shot Gun confederacy—Thur 12— Several deaths have occurred in Our Hospital this week and several more will die soon Gen Mitchell has perhaps left Chattanooga but we do not know why.

Fri 13th Weather cool especially at night Sea breeze causing a chilling sensation to the system unusual with us in the North two more prisoners dies to day—

Macon Georgia Sat June 14th 1862 We learn from good authority that Charles, Savannah & Ft. Sumpter are now in possession of Federals Lieut Shaffer & I cooked to day.

Sun 15. A clear and pleasant day. There are corpses in the Hospital to day. We hear that the 500 prisoners rejected by Gen Mitchell will return to this prison Boys begin to study the Geography of this Confederacy.

Mon 16. Rains some to day— We draw 7 days rations of stinking meat & Flour rice & one days ration of Molasses. Lieut Maize 62 Kentucky U.S.V. takes a fence furlough to night. Bully for Kentucky.

Tues 17. Some sprinkling of rain to day very cool We learn that the prisoners that were paroled are to return here tomorrow. Lieuts Geyher, Agey & 6 or 8 others make their escape to day some go tonight Moss & C falls.

Wed 18 To day has [been] one of General sport and high spirits.

Noon reported absent yet our Yankee tricks Work well. 500 prisoners return this evening. I have engaged in the Bone trade. have 25 cts invested in Stock.

Thn 19. Our Prison is crowded by the additional 500 prisoners but we manage to crowd them time and tide. Todays paper contains a disciple list of prisoners escaped from the prison $100 per man is offered for Officers.

Fri 20. This morning adjutant Tyner reports the absentees. we are all threatened by close confinement. We are told by the Baker that all privates will leave here next Monday. he is baking crackers for them. We hope this true.

Sat 21 All is quiet to day as usual we begin to believe the privates can be released.

Sunday June 22 This is truly a delightful morning— Yesterday evening the Quartermaster brought in 290 Shirts to be distributed to the Ragged assed of Prisoners. This morning they all turn out to hear the Rebel preacher or Chaplain who preaches to the prisoners but does not allow our own Chaplain to preach. Mortality is now about 9 men per week dying in the Hospital.

Mon 23 Nothing unusual occurs to day. Weather dry—

Tues 24 Quite a funny joke was exposed this morning 50 constables vammothed & Ten Artillery men left for parts unknown. Supposed to be on a ticket furlough— Bully for Dixie.

Wed 25 Last night 10 Artillery Soldiers absquatulated last night— Judge Meek of Ala visits our camp to day— four of Co. E are com- arrive direct from Chattanooga. We hear from the gallant 8th Brigade— to Covington. We propose to send a deposition to Washington Representing Ga.

Thurs 26 Three men dies to day at Hospital— C. Ballard of co. E assistance as possible for their comfort Lieut Ford went out last night Pike is studding the map. He has been very sick but is now able to walk about some.

Fri 27 Corp Pike & several others ceeded from this instation last night. They only ask to be let alone. Mortality here is becoming alarming. Fred Beck is sick with chills & fever.

Sat 28 Very warm this forenoon. We hear that they are fighting at Richmond that Beauregards & Halleck army have gone to Rich- mond. A meeting of the Prisoners was held in Officers Quarters for the intercede parole exchange or some [ alleviation of] our suffer-

Sun 29th Rained yesterday afternoon and continued last night & no less than fifteen prisoners escaped through the gaard line while raining Sentinels calling for the corporal at all hours of the night "Corps of the guard Post No 8" "Corps Guard Po no 15." "Corps gc Po No 12. double quick-run-Yankees running out over my line—" Another Sentinel cries out "Let em go! dam it. The was overs over any how." "Corps guard Post No 19—" Yankees running out here like sheep.” Why don’t you shoot? My dashin old gun was go off.” We are greatly amused by this kind of confab among the Sentinels. Luitg Ford was brought in last night in chains Lieut Randolph still in chains—Another meeting was held to day to close the business of yesterday meeting on commissioners rehearing & reelection &

Mon 30 We now learn that Richmond is still the Seat of the Rebel Army. Boregard entire force has concentrated here for one last decisive struggle. They are now fighting. Current report here that Gen Mcclellan and 3000 men taken prisoner. Ill bet that’s a lie. We are all brought into line and counted Mustered in good order. Not mustered for pay but for Com Meal & Rotten meat— We hope Uncle Sam will be able to muster us soon at enemy Muster if not at Meat Muster. We expect G. Bended to die to night. He talked of Death as no terror today—

Tues July 1st We draw 7 days rations to day—rains to day we have nothing to eat for breakfast & dinner—out of wood also George D Bended Co. E. 4th O.V.C. died at 7 P.M. A hard storm to night about 20 are ragged in Buttermilk attire. Spec they require to cede to night. All rights come the poor crop is kept on the court looking forty [forty] ways for Sunday Sentinels all scared to death. The Yankees begin to leak out at dusk. Sentinels all doubled and thrippled all instructed to shoot without hesitation any one coming with six pieces of chine line. The result in the morning is found that the Corporal of Guard was Shot by a Sentinel supposing him to be a Yankee. This is 2 days after breakfast. I have just written what occurred last night & yesterday. I am afraid some of Co E will cede some of these dark nights— I dont like the Idea of running a gauntlet of 4000 miles—I have possession of a Georgia Gazetreer from Lieut Moss. Report from Richmond is that Mcclellan is Driven back with great loss his army demoralized. The expect him to capitulate Soon. As usual this make the guards saucy toward us. The guard is more strick in vigilance some of them swearing they must kill a Yankee before this war closes. All is quiet as usual among us but at Dusk a Sentinel Shot the old French man a harmless & inoffensive man. Was standing 60 feet from the line ball entering passing through his body through the Barracks of men teaching the Corp of another privates. Gen Lee answered to the dead but Gen Lee answers "No let the dead bury the dead." but our secret opinion is that Gen Mcclellan will make fourth of July celebration in Richmond the morrow Postage has been raised from 5 cts to 10 ps letter. This speaks well for Southern Independence.

Thur 3 Many Doubts as to what Mcclellan is doing but at night we are told that Mc asked for an Armistice of 4 days to bury the dead but Gen Lee answers "No let the dead bury the dead." but our secret opinion is that Gen Mcclellan will make fourth of July celebration in Richmond the morrow Postage has been raised from 5 cts to 10 ps letter. This speaks well for Southern Independence.

July 4th 1862 Here we are still in Macon Prison a dark cloudy morning. Men from all states of the old Union from Maine to Florida and back to Wisconsin all say they never knew the temperature so cool all wear coats Col R. H. Smith was buried to day in Macon Flags are waiving at half-mast, through the town — Not a word of new is heard to day. The only way of celebrating the glorious old 4th is profound & silent meditation we are told this evening that the fight so far at Richmond closed as a drawn Battle Capt Clay Crawford of our Mess was brought to camp to day in chains He had made his escape a week ago from here was rotten in Northern Alabama Hospitals. With four other are confined in tents at Guard Post Many of the boys have made fine specimens of Bone work of these they will make presents to their Patriotic friends at Home— (twas cool & cloudy all day here seemingly as from known from Heaven.

Sat July 5 The morning news is that McClenan had surrender his entire Army of 100000 men to Jeff & Gen Lee—Understand this is the latest despatch by the Grape vine Telegraph on the Surrender of Gen McC Gen Lee marched direct to Washington [7] Abe Lincoln & cabinet fled from Halls in disguise Mrs Lincoln in escaping from the White House caught her dress upon a nail and tore it most Shamefully— The confideera congresses are for the present to sit at Antioch until some of the Yankee calver in the west could be captured. Turns warmer today—Lieut Geyher was captured and brought into camp to day we carry their victuals to them but not allowed to speak—fortifying Atlanta now.

Sunday July 6 Another bright Sabbath morn and yet at Macon Prison we are told that our Army is routed and in a very humiliating condition Guard are insulting us to day This evening a Ceece captain calls for Capt Crabbe for whom he has been exchanged of course the cap is willing to accept. Our men are writing letters to be inspected by the Maj & not rejected carried to over lines by capt Crabbe. I write to p Jones & Lieuts Holman & Burke—we learn that congress is dis-

Lord and Lieutenant Shaffer of Co. G are also with us, the Ohio Cavalry were taken with us, but one of them died here a week ago. No other serious cases of sickness have yet occurred in our company, and we are in as good health, and fine spirit as we might wish; or, at least, expect to be.

Yours Obly,

LIEUT. FRANK HUGHES
cussing the propriety of a general exchange after the fight at Richmond—

Mon 7th All are up early preparing letters to send home but doubting whether they will be permitted to pass their lines Capt Crab bides us Goodbye at 8½ A.M. May heaven smile upon his latter days he has been sick through 7 months captivity in Dixie. It is very warm to day This evey a train loaded with Soldeiurs of Infrty and one Battery of six guns are seen going out on the Chattanooga R.R. Mustered again to day for our Corn Meal & stinking meat—5 or 6 officers are now seated around on their bunks searching eagerly in the seams of their unmentionables for something they don't want to find

Tues 8 quite a number of the prisoners now have the scurvy My mouth is very sore I have headache This aftenoon the con Officers are ordered to prepare 1 days Rations we bak biscuit this eveng weather fair spirits in doubtful thought

Wed 9th 1862 Some anticipating exchange This day two months ago we were taken prisoners & this day we commissioned Off. take leave of Private & [? ] Men at 9 we march to the Depot bound for Madison Ga where we will be confined more closely no doubt We take the Chattanooga train arrive at C. at 4 P.M. quite a pleasant looking town we stay at the Depot till 8 then start for Madison—riding in cattle cars dirty & filthy no seats arrive at M at 12. walk ½ mile to the prison Halted kept standing in line an hour counted 3 times finally turned into the Madison steam Mill—slept on the 2nd floor till next morning not knowing how many or who is here—had plenty of nothing to eat
