 Based on the 2007-08 rate, actual fee may be slightly different depending on the 2008-09 fees set by the Indiana University Board of Trustees during the summer.

The Overseas Study fee (co-spons) is an unremittable portion of IU tuition, which cannot be waived if you are to receive IU credit. It is used to retire IU's construction bonds and is not retained by the Overseas Study Office.

The IU Service fee underwrites the activities of the Office of Overseas Study.

The IES fees include tuition, orientation, housing, some meals, selected field trips and health insurance. The instructional portion of the fee is $11,975. In late July the Bloomington bursar will send an e-mail notifying you that your statement is available for viewing and printing from the web through their QuickPay application. Your $500 prepayment and any IUB scholarships or loans will be listed as credits there.

If your financial assistance is greater than the combined IU fees, the difference will be refunded to you. Bloomington campus students should arrange to have their refund deposited directly into a U.S. bank account, see the Bursar website for directions. If for some reason direct deposit is not an option, instruct the Bursar to mail a check to your permanent address where someone is authorized to open your mail and deposit the check into your bank account.

Other Program Costs

In addition to the fees paid to IU and IES, it is estimated you will need $1,800-$2,600 for meals, about $300 for course materials and textbooks and $3,000 for personal expenses and local transportation. These latter sums are discretionary and vary markedly from one student to another depending on your lifestyle and budget. Vacation travel is additional.

IU Refund Policy

Once paid, the $200 IU Service Fee is non-refundable. The Overseas Study Fee is refunded on a cost-recoverable basis only.
