a. The hiring department must review the applicant’s university employment application form including the criminal history disclosure statement prior to making an offer of employment.
b. All offers of employment, oral and written, shall include the following statement: "This offer is contingent on the university’s verification of credentials and other information required by state law and IU policies, including the completion of a criminal history check."

c. Employment verification: It is strongly recommended that this verification be completed before making an offer of employment to any individual; in all cases requiring such, this verification shall be completed within 30 days of making the offer of employment.

d. Educational and License verifications: It is strongly recommended that this verification be completed before making an offer of employment to any individual; in all cases requiring such, these verifications shall be completed within 30 days of making the offer of employment.

e. Criminal history check and sex and violent offender registry check: In all cases requiring such, these background checks shall be initiated after acceptance of the conditional offer of employment. The individual is required to complete the University’s consent form and provide his or her official name, date of birth and social security number which will be provided to a third-party which the University has contracted with for associated services. The offer of employment must be withdrawn if the individual fails to complete the consent form.

f. If the criminal history check indicates that there are no convictions, the third party vendor will inform the initiator of the request who in turn will inform the applicant that the employment offer is confirmed.

g. If the criminal history check indicates that there are convictions, the third party vendor will inform the campus Human Resource office and University Human Resource Services. The campus Human Resource office will provide a copy of the report to the individual. (All related information will be treated as confidential, and protected as such.)

h. If the criminal history check reveals convictions which the individual disclosed in the application, the campus Human Resource office will review the report with the hiring department. Jointly, they will evaluate each conviction, including any additional information that the individual provides, before the offer of employment is confirmed or withdrawn. The existence of a conviction does not automatically disqualify an individual from employment. Relevant considerations may include, but are not limited to, the nature and number of the convictions, their dates, and the relationship that a conviction has to the duties and responsibilities of the position. Any decision to accept or reject an individual with a conviction is solely at the discretion of Indiana University. (All related information will be treated as confidential, and protected as such.)

i. If unreported convictions are revealed in the criminal history check, the offer of employment will be withdrawn and, if employed, the individual will be separated from employment, unless the individual shows that the report is in error. The decision to reject or separate an individual with an unreported conviction is solely at the discretion of Indiana University. (All related information will be treated as confidential, and protected as such.)

j. In the event that the results of the background check influences a decision to withdraw an employment offer or separate employment, the campus Human Resource office will inform the hiring department and the individual.

k. For all employment, education, and license checks/verifications required, departments shall maintain records indicating the item checked/verified, the name of the department personnel completing the check/verification, the date of the check/verification, and the status of the check/verification. These records shall be retained in the department's personnel file for the associated employee.

i. All results of criminal and sex and violent offenders’ convictions or issues are considered confidential and will be maintained in confidential files within the campus Human Resource office.

6. University Human Resource Services Responsibilities

a. In the event that a criminal conviction is found, the third party vendor will submit the report to the campus Human Resource office associated with the position and University Human Resource Services.

8. Appeals
   a. An offer to a current Staff employee for a position identified in the Policy Statement above is conditional until completion and review of the criminal history check. If the offer is withdrawn as the result of a background check or if the Staff employee is separated as the result of an unreported conviction, the employee may appeal the withdrawal of the offer or the separation pursuant to the university’s problem-grievance procedures.
   b. For all other individuals, the withdrawal of an offer of employment based on the result of a background check may be appealed to the next higher unit head for review but the decision is not subject to the university’s problem-grievance procedures.
