This flowchart only applies to funding being distributed to a student. A student is broadly defined as a person who has been admitted to the university. For information on providing funding to an individual who is not classified as a student, please contact Accounts Payable.