Who Are AP A?

is a bi-weekly round-table discussion that allows students to talk about myths and stereotypes of Asian Pacific Americans, and discuss ways to dispel misconceptions.

WHO ARE ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICANS?

A bi-weekly talk series brought to you by the Asian Culture Center and the Asian American Association

Demystifying the Model Minority Myth

Friday, January 20, 2006
12:30 pm - 1:30 pm
Asian Culture Center
807E. 10th Street

A light lunch will be provided

Co-sponsored by Asian American Association
http://www.indiana.edu/~aaa

The model minority myth is the assumption that Asian Americans have overcome all barriers to success in the US, and implies they make up an intelligent, hard-working minority group that has achieved the American Dream. Unfortunately, these depictions aren't always the case, and they have created unrealistic expectations many Asian Americans simply cannot live up to in work, academic and social settings. Come and join us as we debate the facts and myths surrounding the model minority.

For more information contact the
Asian Culture Center
acc@indiana.edu
812-856-5361
http://www.indiana.edu/~acc/