About the Keynote Speaker

Dr. Mark Elliott is the Vice Provost of International Affairs and Mark Schwartz Professor of Chinese and Inner Asian History at Harvard University. As a scholar, Elliott is an authority on the last four centuries of Chinese history, in particular the Qing period. His research encompasses the history of relations between China and its nomadic frontier, with special attention to questions of ethnicity and empire. His first book, The Manchu Way: The Eight Banners and Ethnic Identity in Late Imperial China, is a pioneering study in the “New Qing History,” an approach emphasizing the imprint of Inner Asian traditions upon China’s last imperial state. As Vice Provost, he oversees and works to advance Harvard’s international academic initiatives, negotiating agreements with foreign governments, receiving international delegations, and representing Harvard to peer institutions and alumni worldwide. Dr. Elliott received his B.A. and M.A. from Yale University and his Ph.D. in History at the University of California, Berkeley. He taught at the University of California, Santa Barbara and the University of Michigan before coming to Harvard in 2003.
