Indiana University Graduate Students in African Studies (GSAS) 3rd Annual Symposium

Intersections: Global Encounters on the African Continent

Bloomington, IN - March 23, 2013

Saturday, March 23, 2013

9:00 AM Registration & Breakfast
IU School of Education Atrium

9:30 AM Welcome
IU School of Education Auditorium

9:40 AM Morning Panel I
IU School of Education Auditorium

Admire Mseba (University of Iowa)
European Encounters in a Colony: Settlers, the State and the Negotiation of Environmental Entitlements in Colonial Northeastern Zimbabwe, 1890-1930s

Kofi Takyi Asante (Northwestern University)
Collusion, Cooperation and Conflict: How Indigenous Gold Coast Merchants Shaped the Emergence of the State, 1850-1950

Nathanial Chimhete (University of Iowa)
Neo-liberal Economic Reforms and the Wanyamongo of Northern Tanzania

11:00 AM Morning Panel II
IU School of Education Auditorium

Courtney Mitchel (Indiana University)
XULY.Bêt, Salaula, and Victoria’s Secrets: Tracing Subjectivity through the Global Garment Industry

Chelsie Yount-André (Northwestern University)
Wielding a Double-Edged Sword: Reproducing Reciprocity and Distinction among Transnational Senegalese

Rebecca Sable (George Mason University)
Education through Racism: An Analysis of Identity Issues Amongst Maltese and Irregular Migrant 12:00 PM Lunch
IU School of Education Atrium

1:10 PM Afternoon Panel
IU School of Education Auditorium

Rasheedah Liman (Michigan State University)
Poverty and the Emergent Culture of Violence in Northern Nigeria: The Imperative of Theatre for Development (TFD) Strategy

Reynolds Whalen (Indiana University)
Ghetto Film Trust and Urunano Youth and Media: The Third Cinema Approach in Contemporary East Africa

2:30 PM Keynote Lecture
IU School of Education Auditorium

Bruce Whitehouse, Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Lehigh University
What Use is Globalization? Challenging the Local and the Global in the Study of Africa

4:00 PM Final Reception
School of Education Atrium