Experience a dynamic West African metropolis!
Deepen in-class learning through excursions. Practice your French through extracurricular interactions with Senegalese youths and adults!

Study Site
- Dakar is the political, cultural, and economic capital of Senegal and the former capital of French West Africa.
- The program is hosted by the University Cheikh Anta Diop School of Education
- Students are housed in an apartment or bungalow-style house on campus

Academics
- Seminar on Film, Culture and Development in West Africa with guest lectures by local scholars and artists (3 credits); excursions to various sites outside Dakar
- Introduction to the Wolof Language (3 credits)
- Field Practicum (2 credits) in Dakar-based organizations

Prerequisites
- Two semesters of college-level French required; four semesters recommended
- One Africa-focused course strongly recommended

Resident Program Director: Dr. Amadou Fofana, Willamette University;
  Courtesy Professor, University of Oregon
  Co-Director: Dr. Babacar Fall, History Dept., Université Cheikh Anta Diop

Application Deadline: February 28, 2017

For additional details and application materials, visit:

For questions about the program, contact:
Dr. Maria Grosz-Ngaté, African Studies Program, mgrosz@indiana.edu or 812/855-5081