African Studies Program
Friday Colloquium Series, Fall 2016
SGIS Room 3067, 10:30am-12:00pm

September 30*: "Signs & Wonders: Aesthetics and Uncertainties in 'Pentecostalite' Accra."
Emily Stratton, Religious Studies Department
*One time room change: SGIS Room 2067

October 7: Fall Break

October 14: “Rethinking the 'Diversity Debit': Ethnicity and Political Incentives in Kenya's Constituency Development Fund. “
Kirk Harris, Political Science Department

October 21: “International Migration and Social Mobility among the Sub-Saharan African Middle-Class”
Tristan Ivory, Post-Doctoral Fellow, CRRES & Sociology

October 28: “The Voyage of Socialization in the Transnational Bildungsroman”
Moussa Thiao, Department of Comparative Literature

Marissa Moorman, Department of History

Rudo Mudiwa, Communication and Culture

Note: In lieu of a colloquium on Friday, November 18, Justin Pearce, University of Cambridge (UK), will present a guest lecture on Wednesday, November 16, at 4:45pm in GA 3067.