African Languages at Indiana University

Akan (Twi) AFRI-K 101/102
(Ghana and Cote D’Ivoire)

Bamana (Bambara) AFRI-B 101/102
(Mali, Burkina Faso, Guinea-Conakry, Northern Cote D’Ivoire, and Senegal)

Swahili (Kiswahili) AFRI-S 101/102
(Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Somalia, Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda, Burundi, Mozambique, and the Comoro islands)

Wolof AFRI-W 101/102
(Senegal, Gambia, and Mauritania)

Yoruba AFRI-Y 101/102
(Nigeria, Benin, and Togo)

Zulu (IsiZulu) AFRI-Z 101/102
(South Africa, Zimbabwe, Malawi, Namibia, and Mozambique)

Why enroll in an African language course?
• Classes are small • Learning is collaborative • Culture and history are integrated into the language classroom • Fulfills foreign language requirement • Opportunities to study abroad • Counts toward Certificate in African Studies • Counts toward undergraduate African Language Minor

Undergraduate intermediate (201/202) and advanced (301/302) levels
Graduate level credit (501,502,601,602,701, and 702) also available

Email: afrilang@indiana.edu
Website: www.indiana.edu/~afrist/
Find us: @iuasp

AFRICAN STUDIES PROGRAM
SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES