The Archives of African American Music and Culture Presents:

HOT BUTTERED SOUL

The Role of Foodways & Musicmaking in Building and Sustaining African American Communities

Dr. Psyche Williams-Forson
(Dept. American Studies, University of Maryland College Park)

Dr. Tyron Cooper
(Dept. African American and African Diaspora Studies)

Dr. Alisha Jones
(Dept. Folklore and Ethnomusicology)

October 27
4:30PM
Neal Marshall
BCC Grand Hall

Followed by Soul Food Tasting
& Exhibit Opening
in Bridgwaters Lounge

Sponsors: Archives of African American Music and Culture, Department of African American and African Diaspora Studies, Department of Anthropology, Department of Folklore and Ethnomusicology, Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center, Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs, Asian American Studies Program