IU Soul Revue
Fall 2015 Auditions
Thursday, August 27th, 2015 at 7pm
Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center, Grand Hall

Dr. Tyron Cooper, Director

VOCALISTS: Sing/perform one R&B, Soul, or Gospel song that best demonstrates your vocal abilities. You will also be asked to match pitches and harmonize.

INSTRUMENTALISTS: Play one R&B, Soul, or Gospel song that best demonstrates your instrumental abilities. Also, be prepared to improvise over and/or accompany a R&B/Soul music groove. Drums, keyboards, and amplifiers will be provided.

Other instruments should be brought to the audition.

NOT A VOCALIST OR INSTRUMENTALIST?: Demonstrate to the best of your ability what you can do to contribute to this ensemble (i.e. spoken word, social media promotions, costume design, etc.).

COURSE CREDIT (2CR.):
A120—Department of African American and African Diaspora Studies
X040 Jacobs School of Music with special permission

CLASS TIME/DAY:
Full Ensemble Rehearsal (Vocalists & Instrumentalists, etc.): Tuesday and Thursday, 3:35pm-5:35pm in Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center, Grand Hall
Vocalist Sectional Rehearsal: Monday, 7pm-9pm in Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center, A219.

CONTACT: For more information email Dr. Tyron Cooper at tycooper@indiana.edu or call 812.855.5828.

A Unit of the Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs
Department of African American and African Diaspora Studies
Indiana University, Bloomington
www.indiana.edu/~aadai