American Studies Graduate Program
Brown Bag Series

Next Week!
Monday, March 30, 11:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.
Sassafras Room, IMU

“LANDING A FELLOWSHIP”
A brown-bag discussion of best practices in applying for and securing grant and fellowship support

PRESENTERS: MYRNA GARCIA AND CHRISTINA SNYDER

UPCOMING IN THE SERIES

Monday, April 20, 11:30a—12:30p, Sassafras Room, IMU
“Recruit! Forming Committees; and, Writing the Prospectus”
A brown-bag discussion of how to pick an examination or dissertation committee, how to approach faculty to ask them to serve, and how to approach the dissertation prospectus.
PRESENTERS: DEB COHN AND KAREN INOLYE

Monday, May 18, 11:30a—12:30p, Ballantine Hall 004
“How I Spent My Summer (or Should Have): Looking Ahead”
A brown-bag discussion of summer opportunities, responsibilities, and tasks for AMST graduate students, including thinking about the timing of exams, preparation of fall syllabi, and preliminary dissertation exploration.
PRESENTERS: LESSIE JO FRAZIER AND NICOL SEIGEL

Date/Time/Place TBA
“Publishing in Graduate School”
A brown-bag discussion of the pro’s and con’s of publishing while still in graduate school, and how to ready an article for submission to a journal.
PRESENTERS: SCOTT HERRING AND MARLON BAILEY

All brown bags are open to all American Studies graduate students including standalone Ph.D.s, Ph.D. minors, and combined Ph.D.s... and friends.