Come See . . .

Wednesday, October 7, 2015
Noon—1:30p   Oak Room, IMU

Format: 6 Flash talks by faculty and undergraduates and Q&A discussions
Our conversation will be live-tweeted—#coatesvisitiu

IU gets ready for Ta-Nehisi Coates’ visit

Grab a bite and join undergraduates & faculty discussing issues related to Coates’ Between the World and Me. Let’s engage in frank and thoughtful discussion about Black Lives Matter, institutional racism, white privilege, police brutality, and the physical dangers people of color face daily.

Hosted by American Studies and co-sponsored by Hutton Honors College, the Wells Scholars Program, College Arts and Humanities Institute