IP EXTERNSHIP IN TRADEMARKS - SPRING 2014

IU’s Director of Licensing & Trademarks is partnering with our Center for Intellectual Property Research to offer an IP externship which started during the fall semester 2013. If you are selected for the externship, you will need to sign up for B551, IP Externship, with Professor Janis as the faculty supervisor. Contact Professor Janis if you have any questions. This is an excellent opportunity for any student interested in trademark law. A description of the externship follows.

IU Licensing and Trademarks is seeking a law student extern to conduct research on trademark matters for infringements, applications or registrations, and to assist the office in drafting cease and desist letters. The ideal candidate will possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, and have a great attention to detail, accuracy, and organization. It is likely that the majority of the externship work hours will need to be completed during regular business hours (8am-5pm, Monday-Friday). Rising 2L or 3L students are eligible to be considered. A focus in IP law, particularly trademark law, is preferred.

*International students are welcome to apply for this position. Hiring decisions will be made by externship hosts.
