

Citations are required for all print and electronic sources. These are examples of the most common.

Citations – In Text

Author’s name in main sentence: year of publication in parentheses

More recent work by Troy (2005) has provided support for the notion that memory for faces involves verbal as well as visual information.

Author not named in main sentence: author’s name and year of publication in parentheses

One study demonstrated that after listening to an hour-long lecture, most people could recall only 23% of its important points (Boredom, 2007).

More than one author not named in main sentence: cite in the same parentheses

Several recent studies (Pastor, 2002; McDonald, 2003; Farmer, 2005) have supported the idea that many domesticated animals are capable of very complex types of cognitive processing.

Several sources by the same author, author’s name in main sentence: years of publications in ascending order in same parentheses

Several studies by Gallahad (2001, 2003, 2007a,b) have examined the causes and symptoms of the “knight in shining armor” syndrome.

Quotation: use author’s name in main sentence, year of publication in parentheses, with the page or para. number in parentheses at end of quote

As Scepton (2005) notes, “the most widely accepted explanation for most psychotherapeutic benefits is the placebo effect” (p. 467).

Cheek and Buss (1989) have asserted that “people in numerous cultures greet each other with a form of greeting that Westerners would call a ‘kiss’” (para. 7).

Unknown Author: use first two or three words of title and year of publication in parentheses at end of sentence

Antibacterial soaps target some common microbes (“Microbes Evolve!” 2006).

No date: use author’s last name followed by the notation n.d. for “no date” in parentheses at end of sentence

It is particularly difficult to diagnose seasonal affective disorder, because of the lack of a standardized test or even an agreed-upon list of symptoms (Winterbottom, n.d.).

APA STYLE QUICK GUIDE - Page 2

Citations – Bibliography

NOTE: APA FORMAT IS DOUBLE SPACED WITH A HANGING INDENT; DUE TO SPACE CONSIDERATIONS, EXAMPLES ARE SHOWN SINGLE SPACED.

Books/Monographs

Order of Information to be Included in Bibliography (if Available);

Author's or Editor's (etc.) name, in reverse. (Year of publication in parentheses). Title of work in italics, only capitalize first word of title and any proper nouns (extra information, such as edition number, if necessary to identify work, in parentheses). Place of publication: Publisher.

Book – Single Author

Nigh, B. (2007). Topics in science (Rev. ed.). New York: Chemical Press.

Book – Two or More Authors

Glass, F., & Glass, Z. (2006). World religions: In theory and practice. Tucson, AZ: University of Arizona Press.

Book– Anonymous

Dictionary of small places (2nd college ed.). (2004). Boston: Lilliputian Press.

Book – Edited

Morris, R. J. (Ed.). (2007) Cat food across the world. New York: Cream of the Crop Press.

Book – Chapter in an Edited Book

Bartholomew, M. (2006). The clash of east and west in medicine: Medical practice and religion in the wake of the Black Death. In M. Moscovitch (Ed.), The history of medicine (pp. 145-172). New York: Cranium Press.

Norwich, J. (2007). Friendship bread: Food for thought. In T. Avila & F. Angelico (Eds.), Cooking with the saints (pp. 143-165). Hillsdale, NJ: Ertlree.

Book – Encyclopedia

Tuper, W., & Jigger, S. (Eds.) (2007). Encyclopedia of measurements and containers (Vols. 1-3). Baltimore, MD: Meter Publications.

APA STYLE QUICK GUIDE - Page 3

Journals/Serials/Newspapers

Order of Information to be Included in Bibliography (if Available):

Author's name, in reverse. (Year of publication, month and day in parentheses). Title of article. Title of publication in italics, only capitalize first word of title only and any proper nouns, volume number in italics (issue number in regular font), page number/numbers. Retrieved from database name OR, if available, use doi:xx.xxxxxxx (NOTE: no period required after doi)

Article - Newspaper

Recycling takes campus by storm. (2006, February 18). Indiana University Gazette, p. 4.

Read, B. (2005, March 19). Downloads on the rise. Yale Daily News, p. 8. Retrieved from LexisNexis Academic database.

Article – Magazine

Pergram, A. (2006, December). Music and machines. Guitar Monthly, 7, 158-163, 166-167.

Rutherford, E. (2006, July 10). Study habits among graduating seniors. Education Daily, 5-7.

Whitt, J. (2007, May 2). The downfall of the sitcom. NewsLife, 146, 62. Retrieved from ABI Inform/Global database.

Article – Scholarly Journal

Heck, A. M., Haley, K. M., & Winn, J. G. (2003). Further analysis of the hippopotamus' sleep patterns. Zoo Psychology, 6, 215-240.

Miller, L. E., & Baer, B. C. (2000). Brain mechanisms of flight. Scientific, 110(3), 150-164.

Quinn, D. (2004). Irish diaspora studies in Canada. Culture Canadien, 27(2), 166-174. Retrieved from Academic Search Premier database.

Smith, Joe. (2008). The problem with citations. The Best Scholarly Journal, 12(10), 150-153. doi:60.123A/6102.21.3245

Whitehouse, W. G. (2004). Political ambush in traditional pre-schools. Journal of Abnormal Education, 591(4), 567-588. Retrieved from PsycARTICLES database.

APA STYLE QUICK GUIDE - Page 4

Internet Resources

Order of Information to be Included in Bibliography (if Available):

Author's name, in reverse. (Date of publication in parentheses). Title of document/page in italics. Date retrieved, from exact address (NOTE: no period required after web address)

Web Site – Anonymous

Subway maps to the stars: Autographs on the underground. Retrieved March 1, 2007, from <http://www.subwaymaps.net>

Web Site – Personal Author

Slee, A. V. (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved July 12, 2005, from <http://mypage.iu.edu/~avslee/>

Web Site – Editor

Ryan, F. (Ed.). (2007). Case studies at the university hospitals of Cleveland. Retrieved July 14, 2006, from <http://www.uh.org/reports/casestudies.pdf>

Web Site – Institutional/Organizational Author

World University. (2005). World University fact book 2004-2005. Retrieved August 9, 2005, from <http://factbook.worldu.edu/fbook04/enroll/fall.shtml>