The Brazilian Studies Group and The Center for Latin American And Caribbean Studies invite you to the lecture

Romances brasileiros em Portugal pelas mãos de dois editores franceses by
Juliana Maia de Queiroz, PhD
(Federal University of Pará, Brazil)

Wednesday, April 13, 1pm
Collins Living-Learning Center, Coffeehouse
(Corner 10th and Woodlawn)

This lecture will examine how Brazilian writers figured in the bookselling market of Portugal. Lecture in Portuguese; Q&A in English and Portuguese.

Juliana Maia Queiroz is Associate Professor of Portuguese Literature at the University of Pará, Brazil. She is one of Brazil’s experts on the transatlantic exchange between Brazil and Portugal during the 19th century.

This talk is sponsored by *the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, *the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, *the Office of the Vice President for International Affairs, *the Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Multicultural Affairs, *La Casa, *Collins Living-Learning Center, *the School of Global and International Studies, *the Institute for European Studies, and *the Department of Comparative Literature.