Through participation in the National Council on U.S.-Arab Relations’ Model Arab League (MAL) program students learn about the politics and history of the Arab world, and the arts of diplomacy and public speech. MAL helps prepare students to be knowledgeable, well-trained, and effective citizens as well as civic and public affairs leaders. As the National Council’s mission is educational, we welcome universities and high schools from across the United States to participate.

Sponsored by: National Council on US-Arab Relations

For more information please visit: www.indiana.edu/~csme

The Center for the Study of the Middle East will be holding a call-out meeting for all students interested in participating in this year's Model Arab League to take place at Miami University in Oxford Ohio from February 20-22, 2014. All students are encouraged to come find out about how to get involved in this year’s Model Arab League.