Yosuke Nirei

Yosuke Nirei is an Assistant Professor of History at Indiana University South Bend. He completed his doctorate in history at the University of California at Berkeley with his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Sophia University, Tokyo, in English language and American / Canadian studies and international relations. Born and raised in Japan, he also graduated from an American high school through the Japan Prefectural Representative Scholarship.

Prof. Nirei teaches courses on history and cultures of Asia, the non-Western world, and historical method. He specializes in Japanese history and is currently finishing a book manuscript with the title, The Ethics of Empire: Protestant Thought, Moral Culture, and Imperialism in Meiji Japan. He is also working on an intellectual, social, and political history since the late Tokugawa and Meiji period and a cultural history of the U.S.-Japanese relations.

Recent Publications
