East Asian Studies Center
Fall 2016 Special Events & Films

3:00-5:00 p.m., Global and International Studies Building, EASC Area

EASC/EALC Welcome Back Party
Kick off the beginning of a new year with conversation and tastes of awesome East Asian cuisine-Chinese, Japanese, and Korean food.

Institute for Korean Studies: Opening Ceremony and Reception
All are welcome to the inauguration of Indiana University’s new Institute for Korean Studies along with the Korea Foundation Chair and institute director Seung-Kyung Kim.

10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., Global and International Studies Building, Auditorium

2016 Lotus World Music and Arts Festival
Experience, celebrate, and explore the diversity of the world’s cultures through music and the arts.

10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., Global and International Studies Building, Auditorium

Celebration of Life for Dr. Heidi Ross
We invite you to celebrate the life of former EASC director, Prof. Heidi Ross and her many and varied scholarly contributions.

1:30-2:30 p.m., Global and International Studies Building 2015

East Asian Book Workshop
Individualism in Early China: Human Agency and the Self in Thought and Politics (Erica Brindley)
Students, join us for an amazing opportunity to read a scholarly work on East Asia and meet with the author to discuss it! EASC will provide lunch for all workshop participants, and a select number of students will receive a copy of her book.

3:00-5:00 p.m., IU Cinema

East Asian Film Series

---

Dangerous Liaisons (Jin-ho Hur, 2012)
In Shanghai, an aging socialite’s infatuation with her ex-boyfriend manifests itself as a risky game, where her former lover agrees to seduce, then abandon a naïve young woman.

TBA, Global and International Studies Building

China Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections
Former Secretary of State Dr. Henry A. Kissinger will present live via webcast to discuss his crucial role in President Nixon's 1972 visit to China and the reestablishment of U.S.-China relations.

1:30-2:30 p.m., Global and International Studies Building 2015

East Asian Book Workshop
Beauty Up: Exploring Contemporary Japanese Body Aesthetics (Laura Miller)*
Students, join us for an amazing opportunity to read a scholarly work on East Asia and meet with the author to discuss it! EASC will provide lunch for all workshop participants, and a select number of students will receive a copy of her book.
(This event has been made with the generous support of the College of Arts and Sciences and Themester 2016.)

7:00-9:00 p.m., IU Cinema

East Asian Film Series

---

The Royal Tailor (Won-suk Lee, 2014)
The rivalry between two tailors at the Sanggwion, where the attire worn by royalty was made during the Joseon era, plunges the court into scandal and tragedy.

3:00-5:00 p.m., IU Cinema

East Asian Film Series

---

Kamikaze Girls (Tetsuya Nakashima, 2004)
Momoko, a strange and seemingly emotionless girl obsessed with 18th century France, befriends a Yanki biker and the two experience the ups and downs of their unusual lives in a rural Japanese town.

Global and International Studies Building Korea Conference Room

EASC Korea Conference Room Film Screenings
Join EASC to watch contemporary Chinese, Japanese, and Korean films in our new conference room—snacks included! Films will be screened twice a month in the evening. September through December. Attendance limited to first 20 guests.

Admission will be free, but tickets will be required. Tickets may be obtained through the IU Auditorium box office (Mon-Fri 10 a.m.-5 p.m.), online, or in the IU Cinema lobby one hour prior to the screening.