East Asian Studies Center
Fall 2017 Special Events

3:00-5:00 p.m., Global and International Studies Building, EASC Area

EASC/EALC Welcome Back Party
Kick off the beginning of a new year with conversation and tastes of awesome East Asian cuisine-Chinese, Japanese, and Korean food.

1:30-2:45 p.m., Global and International Studies Building 2015

East Asian Book Workshop

A Tokyo Anthology: Literature from Japan’s Modern Metropolis, 1850-1920 (with Sumie Jones)
Join us for an amazing opportunity to read a scholarly work on East Asia and meet with the author to discuss it! EASC will provide lunch for all workshop participants, and a select number of students will receive a copy of the book.

2017 Lotus World Music and Arts Festival
Experience, celebrate, and explore the diversity of the world’s cultures through music and the arts.

4:00-5:30 p.m., Global and International Studies Building 2067

Kuksundo Workshop
Join us for a traditional Korean meditative art form for the mind, body, and soul. Dr. Choi, Kuksundo instructor, will inform you about how to practice cultivating self-awareness through stretching, breathing, and meditation.

1:00-3:00 p.m., HPER Building 169

Kung Fu Workshop
Sifu Chris Alexander will introduce participants to the basics of Zhou Family Northern Praying Mantis-Longfist and Wild Goose Qi Gong through drills, applications, and a short form.

10:00 a.m.-6:30 p.m., Global and International Studies Building Auditorium

Institute for Korean Studies First Anniversary Event
The conference “Assessing Korean Democratization and Democracy: From Molotov Cocktails to Candle Lights” will be held as part of the celebratory events to mark one year since the institute’s inauguration.

7:00-9:00 p.m., Global and International Studies Building, 1st Floor Lounge Area

China Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections
A national conversation about China that provides Americans across the United States and beyond the opportunity to discuss issues in the relationship with leading experts.

1:30-2:45 p.m., Global and International Studies Building 2015

Curative Violence (with Eunjung Kim)
Join us for an amazing opportunity to read a scholarly work on East Asia and meet with the author to discuss it! EASC will provide lunch for all workshop participants, and a select number of students will receive a copy of the book.