Spring 2006 Schedule

12:00 p.m., Ballantine Hall Room 004  January 27
“The SARS Crisis Revisited: A Symposium on Chinese and International Responses to the 2003 Epidemic”
Hung Ho-fung (Sociology) and David Fidler (School of Law)

12:00 p.m., Ballantine Hall Room 004  February 24
“The Unbearable Lightness of Being Genji: Eros, Power, and Fiction in the Wake of the Shining Prince”
Edith Sarra (East Asian Languages and Cultures)

12:00 p.m., Ballantine Hall Room 004  March 24
“Teaching About Below-Replacement Fertility in East Asia”
Laurel Cornell (Sociology)

12:00 p.m., Ballantine Hall Room 004  April 14
“Plotting the Future: Japan, the Club of Rome, and the Idea of Limits in the Late Twentieth Century”
Scott O’Bryan (East Asian Languages and Cultures)

For More Information Contact:
East Asian Studies Center
Memorial Hall West Room 207
1021 East 3rd Street
Bloomington, Indiana 47405
(812) 855-3765
eaasc@indiana.edu
http://www.indiana.edu/~eaasc/easc