East Asian Colloquium Series
Fall 2008 Schedule

September 12
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

Infrastructure Financing in China: A Case Study of Guangdong
John Mikesell (School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IUB)
Alfred Tat-Kei Ho (School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IUPUI)
Meili Niu (School of Government, Sun Yat-Sen University)

October 17
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

Transforming Blue: From Seed to Dye, Indigo in Contemporary Japan
Rowland Ricketts (Fine Arts, IU)

October 24
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

What Can Taiwan Learn from Xinjiang, and Vice Versa?
Gardner Bovingdon (Central Eurasian Studies, IU)

November 7
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

How the Mongols Got a Word for ‘Tribe’ – and What It Means
Christopher P. Atwood (Central Eurasian Studies, IU)

November 21
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

Korean Reunification and South Korea’s Policy toward North Korea
Kwon Manhak (International Relations, Kyung Hee University, South Korea)
Chung Dong-Young (former Minister of Reunification, South Korea)

December 5
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

Did the Olympics Change China, or Did China Change the Olympics?
Susan Brownell (Anthropology, University of Missouri - St. Louis)

For more information contact:
East Asian Studies Center
Memorial Hall West Room 207
1021 East Third Street
Bloomington, IN 47405
(812) 855-3765
easc@indiana.edu
http://www.indiana.edu/~easc/programs/colloquium.shtml