East Asian Colloquium Series
Fall 2011 Schedule

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
The Genpei War Remembered in the Noh: Rewriting the Classical Landscape in the Plays Tadanori and Shigehira
Elizabeth Oyler (East Asian Languages and Cultures, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Second Cities and Modern Life in Interwar Japan
Louise Young (History, University of Wisconsin-Madison)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Globalism and Liberal Expansionism in Meiji Protestant Journalism: Uchimura Kanzō and His Intellectual Milieu
Yosuke Nirei (History, IU South Bend)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Maritime Customs and Chinese Imperialism in the 1880s: A New Look at Korea’s “Chinese Decade”
Wayne Patterson (History, St. Norbert College)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Commemorating Party Founding: The First Party Congress Site in the Mao Years
Denise Ho (History, University of Kentucky)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
The Truth of the Cheonan Incident off of the Korean Peninsula and Tasks to Overcome
Retired General Jong-sung Yoon (Visitor Scholar, East Asian Languages and Cultures, IU Bloomington)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Feng Youlan, Historical Materialism and Marxism among Chinese Intellectuals, 1930s-50s
Xiaoqing Diana Chen Lin (History, IU Northwest)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Japanese Tourism to Korea Circa 1940: The Tension between Assimilation and Tourism Promotion Policies
Ken Ruoff (History, Portland State University)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
From Ground Zero to Degree Zero: Akira as Origin and Oblivion
Christopher Bolton (Comparative and Japanese Literature, Williams College)

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Film Co-productions and the Cultural Contingencies of “New (East) Asia”
Stephanie DeBoer (Communication and Culture, IU Bloomington)

For more information contact: East Asian Studies Center
Memorial Hall West Room 207 * 1021 East Third Street
(812) 855-3765 * easc@indiana.edu * http://www.indiana.edu/~easc