East Asian Colloquium Series
Spring 2011 Schedule

Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004

January 21
How the Rhetoric of Difference Trapped the Chinese Scholars
Kevin Tsai (Comparative Literature, IU Bloomington)

January 28
The Chaghan Naghur Palace and Yuan Royal Falconing
Baohai Dang (Visiting Scholar, Central Eurasian Studies, IU Bloomington)

February 4
New Footprints on an Old Trail: Did Duanmu Si Turn Kong Qiu into Confucius?
Robert Eno (East Asian Languages and Cultures, IU Bloomington)

February 11
Ambitious Bordercrossing: Transnationalism and Hybridity in New Korean Cinema
Jeeyoung Shin (Visiting Scholar, East Asian Languages and Cultures, IU Bloomington)

February 18
Ritual Regimes—Elite Religiosity in Heian Japan
Heather Blair (Religious Studies, IU Bloomington)

March 4
Whose Legal Empowerment? Donor Funded Legal Aid and Experiential Learning in China
Veronica Taylor (School of Regulation, Justice, and Diplomacy, Australian National University)

March 25
Globalist Ethic and Liberal Expansionism: Uchimura Kanzō and His Intellectual Milieus at the Turn of the Twentieth Century
Yosuke Nirei (History, IU South Bend)

April 15
The Problems Posed by Li Qingzhao in the Ming-Qing Period and the Late Twentieth Century
Ronald Egan (East Asian Languages and Cultural Studies, University of California, Santa Barbara)

April 22
Ethnographer and Writer in Colonial Taiwan
Robert Tierney (East Asian Languages and Cultures and Comparative and World Literature, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

---

For more information contact: East Asian Studies Center
Memorial Hall West Room 207 * 1021 East Third Street
(812) 855-3765 * easc@indiana.edu * http://www.indiana.edu/~easc