East Asian Colloquium Series
Spring 2014 Schedule

January 24
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Changing Contexts and Meanings: Making “Culture” and “Heritage” in Northwest China
Sue Tuohey (Folklore and Ethnomusicology, IU Bloomington)

January 31
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Sasanggye (The World of Thought) and the (Re) Emergence of the Public Sphere in 1950s South Korea
Michael Robinson (EALC, IU Bloomington)

February 7
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
The Body of the Friend: Friendship and Literary Culture in Mid-Tang China
Anna Shields (Modern Languages, Linguistics, and Intercultural Communication, University of Maryland Baltimore County)

February 14
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Finessing the Pivot: U.S. Public Diplomacy in Northeast Asia
Emily Metzgar (School of Journalism, IU Bloomington) and Xinyu Lu (MA Student, School of Journalism, IU Bloomington)

February 21
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
Preserving Diversity in the Face of Globalization: The Case of China’s Universities
Ruth Hayoe (Leadership, Higher and Adult Education, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto)

February 28
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Serving Ideals and Interests: Corporate Philanthropy in China
Angela Bies (Director of International Programs, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, IUPUI) & Scott Kennedy (EALC and Political Science; Director, Research Center for Chinese Politics and Business, IU Bloomington)

March 7
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Axial Age Religiosity and the Rise of Moral Theology in China
Ori Tavor (Pre-modern Chinese Studies, University of Pennsylvania)

March 28
Noon, Student Building Room 150
China’s Economic Growth, Urbanization, and Development Strategy
Joyce Man (School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IU Bloomington)

April 11
Noon, Ballantine Hall Room 004
That’s Entertainment: Japanese Literary Celebrity in the Age of Murakami Haruki
Stephen Snyder (Japanese Studies, Middlebury College)

April 18
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Intimacy Jet Lag: Gendered Disjunctures in Making Transnational Families of Taiwanese Business People
Hsiu Hua Shen (Sociology, National Tsinghua University, Taiwan)

April 25
Noon, Student Building Room 150
Ronald Jacobs (Human Resource Development and Director of the Office of International Programs, College of Education, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)