East Asian Colloquium Series
Spring 2015 Schedule

11 a.m., Woodburn Hall 120

Repackaging Chinggis Khan: Bilingual Histories of the Dynastic Founding in the Yuan Dynasty
Christopher Atwood (Associate Professor of Central Eurasian Studies, IU Bloomington)

January 16

Internet Catchphrases: Grassroots Expressions and Social Memory in Contemporary China
Mingjie Li (Visiting Professor of Folklore and Ethnomusicology, IU Bloomington)

January 30

Suffering Sobriety: Alcoholism and Masculinity in Japan
Paul Christensen (Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology)

February 13

Tradition, Tourism, UNESCO: Ritual Performance on a Japanese Island
Michael Dylan Foster (Associate Professor of Folklore, IU Bloomington)

February 20

Gifted Gazers: Visions of Viewing in Southern Song (1127-1279) Buddhist Painting
Phillip Bloom (Assistant Professor of Art History, IU Bloomington)

February 27

Can The Two Koreas Ever Get Together?
Donald Clark (Professor of History, Trinity University)

March 6

The Gendering of Literati Art: Discursive Constructions of Women Artists in Modern Japan
Yurika Wakamatsu (PhD Candidate in Japanese Art History, Harvard University)

April 10

China’s Anti-trust Investigation against Foreign Companies
Xingxiang Zhang (Practitioner-in-Residence, Research Center for Chinese Politics and Business, IU Bloomington)

April 17