East Asian Studies Center
Fall 2014 Special Events & Films

3-5 pm, Memorial Hall 201, 203, 210

EASC/EALC Welcome Back Party

Come get a taste of three different East Asian flavors – Chinese, Japanese and Korean food – just the right way to kick off IU’s “Eat, Drink, Think” fall Themester!

Lecture: 1 pm, Fine Arts 102; Reception: 2 pm, IU Art Museum Atrium

Good Mourning: Coping with Grief in a Confucian Way*

See the IU Art Museum’s Chinese funerary vessels in a new light! Join us for a lecture by Professor Michael Ing followed by a reception at the Museum.

Indiana University’s Second Annual Korean Night

Join us for a presentation by Korean Consul General Kim; a Chuseok, or harvest festival celebration; Taekwondo demonstrations and a Gayageum performance; samples of delicious Korean food; and much, much more!

Le Grand Chef*

An epic culinary competition must take place to designate the rightful owner of a hallowed chef’s knife in this must-see Jeon Yun-su film.

China Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections

President Jimmy Carter presents live via webcast on 35 years of “Issues in US-China Relations,” followed by Q&A. Nicholas Bequelin, senior researcher in the Asia division of Human Rights Watch, will also address current human rights issues in China.

Eat, Drink, Man, Woman*

Ang Lee’s classic film tells the vibrant story of a long-time widower and master chef who lovingly cooks Sunday dinners for his three daughters.

Tampopo*

Touted as Japan’s original “ramen western,” this 1985 Juzo Itami film depicts the deliciously multi-faceted connections between food and love.
