Figure 12-8: A phylogenetic tree for 49 vertebrate taxa derived from aligning the amino acid sequences in up to seven different polypeptide chains: \( \alpha \)-hemoglobin, \( \beta \)-hemoglobin, myoglobin, lens \( \alpha \)-crystallin A, fibrinopeptide A, fibrinopeptide B, and cytochrome c. (Adapted from Goodman et al.)

Adapted from Strickberger, Monroe W., Evolution, 1990, p. 258.