

Julia Karin Lawson
703 South Fess Ave.
Bloomington IN 47401
(812) 335-1856 juliakarin.j8@gmail.com

Education

1980 Ph.D in German, Indiana University, Bloomington IN 1968 M.A. in German, Indiana University, Bloomington IN 1967 B.A. in German, University of Wisconsin, Madison WI

Professional History

2004- present      Lecturer, Part-time, Dept. of Germanic Studies, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN.

1985-1994,
1997-2002      Adjunct Assistant Professor, Northern Virginia Community College. Instructor for first and second year German classes. Received Jean C. Netherton Award of Excellence for Outstanding Service, May 2002.

1994 - 2002      Instructor, Georgetown University Continuing Education. Taught noncredit German language courses, all levels.

2000-2002      Instructor, Comprehensive Language Center, Inc., a private language contractor in Arlington, VA serving various US government agencies. Taught intensive one-on-one German classes, beginning through advanced levels.

1991 - 1999      Program Director and Instructor of ESL and German, Languages Incorporated, a private language school in Falls Church, VA, part time. Supervised language teaching and administered instructional programs.

1980-1984      Visiting Assistant Professor, Dept of Germanic Languages, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN. Taught German language classes from beginning to third year levels and supervised teaching of beginning level.

1968-1980 intermittently      Graduate Teaching Assistant, Dept. of Germanic Languages, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN.

Foreign Study

1962-1963 Academic Year      American Field Service Exchange Student to Switzerland. Attended the Kantonschule Schaffhausen.

1972-1973 Academic Year      DAAD Dankstipendium to Eberhard Karls Universität, Tübingen, Germany

Professional Organizations

American Association of Teachers of German
American Literary Translators Association
Women in German

References available upon request.

September 2008