

Department of Germanic Studies

Recommended Tutor List

Spring 2009

Peter Heidenreich pjheiden@indiana.edu	815-505-1477	Tutoring any level. Currently teaching G150, previously taught two sections of G100. Previous tutoring experience. 3 years living and studying in Germany at the Universität Tübingen.
Christiane Kaden ckaden@indiana.edu	812-369-8140	Tutoring all levels from beginning to advanced. Conversation practice and grammar are particular interests. Native speaker of German, currently teaching G150. Previous tutoring experience.
Orsolya Kiss okiss@indiana.edu	-----	Teaching experience: Currently teaching G400, have taught at IU for the past 4 years (G100-G330, G492); taught in IU's Graz Study Abroad program, tutored German privately. B.A. in German/International Political Economy; study abroad programs in Koeln. Ph.D. Candidate.
Laura Oreggioni loreggio@indiana.edu	338-0387	Tutoring for beginning (G100-G250) as well as conversation practice, grammar, and exam preparation. Currently teaching G200, taught German in high school, and did tutoring at university in Italy and in Germany. B.A. in Germanistik. One year Erasmus Student at the University of Leipzig. 4th year Ph.D. candidate in Modern German Literature and Culture at IUB.
Fredericka Schmadel schmadel@indiana.edu		Tutoring all levels, all areas. Specialty is explaining weird grammar. 11 years teaching German full time, 7 at the University of Southern Indiana. Fulbright Scholar in Munich. ABD in Germanic languages and literatures, Washington U., St. Louis. Can tutor native speakers of Spanish who are studying German.
John Scott scottjh@indiana.edu	320-7838	Tutoring for beginning-intermediate levels (G100-G250) as well as conversation practice. Experience includes volunteer linguistics tutoring, elementary school presentations, 1 year experience in University Computer-aided Language Learning Center. Background includes a B.A. in German Language & Literature, B.A. in Linguistics, 1 year of university study in Freiburg, current M.A. student. 3 year as A.I. and on tutor list.
Wendy Graham Westphal wcgraham@indiana.edu	-----	Tutoring beginning through advanced (G100-G400, G491/G492) students, as well as conversation practice and translation. Has tutored and taught all levels of German from G100 through G492. Lived and studied in Germany for 8 years and also have 8 years of teaching experience.