CLARK LABS

Dear Student,

Own your own copy of IDRISI for only $39!

Because your institution owns an IDRISI Campus License, you can purchase the IDRISI Student Starter License for only $39, 59% off the normal list price. The Student Starter license is fully functional for a one-year period and comes complete with documentation and tutorial exercises. This offer is extended ONLY to students attending institutions with current Campus Licenses.

If you would like to keep using IDRISI after the "time out" period, you can apply the $39 towards the Full Student License price ($295).

You only need to provide us with proof of student status to receive this exceptional deal. To qualify, your instructor should provide us with a class list, or you can include with your order a copy of your current student registration.

If you place your order on-line, select the $95 Student Starter product from the drop-down list. Use the Comments box to specify that you are eligible for the $39 price.
