

The Center for the Study of Global Change
and School of Global and International Studies are pleased to announce the

David E. Albright Memorial Scholarship 2015-2016

To be eligible for this competition, students must:

- be officially enrolled at IUB as a full-time undergraduate student (minimum 12 credit hours) with a major in the School of Global and International Studies
- have a minimum GPA of 3.500 in your major at the time of the application
- be eligible to graduate in May or August 2016
- have a demonstrated record of "international passion and commitment" (to be described in Personal Statement)
- maintain full-time enrollment (minimum 12 credit hours) at IUB in SGIS or in an IU-administered or IU-co-sponsored overseas study program for the 2015-2016 academic year

Application materials required:

- Application form (available online soon)
- Résumé or CV
- Personal statement of international commitment
- Two letters of recommendation from IU faculty members

Submit all materials to:
global@iu.edu

 One (1) annual award of $1,000 ***

DEADLINE for all materials (including letters of recommendation):

Tuesday, March 10, 2015, 11:59:59 pm

Keep checking for information at:

www.indiana.edu/~global/funding/albright.php; and sgis.indiana.edu/undergraduate/cost-aid.shtml; and college.indiana.edu/undergrad/scholarships/current.shtml

SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
College of Arts and Sciences