

Carolyn Nordstrom: (Professor of Anthropology, University of Notre Dame) Principle areas of interest are war and peace; and transnational extra-legal economies and power. She has conducted extensive fieldwork in warzones worldwide, with long term interests in Southern Africa and South Asia. Her books include: Global Outlaws: Crime, Money, and Power in the Contemporary World; Shadows of War: Violence, Power and International Profiteering in the 21st Century; A Different Kind of War Story; and the edited volumes: Fieldwork Under Fire: Contemporary Stories of Violence and Survival; The Paths to Domination, Resistance, and Terror. She has authored dozens of scholarly articles, and has recently been awarded John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur and John Simon Guggenheim Fellowships.