

Icaro A. da Cunha, Professor of Environmental Politics, Master's Program in Business Management of the Catholic University of Santos. Born in Porto Alegre, state of Rio Grande do Sul. Sociologist, Doctorate in Environmental Health, University of São Paulo. Past member of National Council on Environment, in the capacity of environmental advisor to the Minister of Planning (1986 /87). Past Adjunct Secretary of the Environment for the State of São Paulo (1987- 1989). Past Scientific Director of the Brazilian Agency of Coastal Management and member of Council of Administration of the SOS Foundation of the Atlantic Forest. Professor of Environmental Politics, Master's Program in Business Management of the Catholic University of Santos.