Call for Proposals

RESEARCH IN IRAN AND IRANIAN DIASPORAS: FINDINGS, EXPERIENCES, AND CHALLENGES

A Conference Sponsored by DĀNESH Institute and Hosted by the Department of Central Eurasian Studies (CEUS), Indiana University

Saturday, October 24, 2015
Indiana University--Bloomington

The Planning Committee for this conference invites submission of proposals for papers and panels related to the above conference theme. Papers may include empirical or conceptual studies, and panels may focus on a single topic or a range of related topics. Paper or panel proposals should include the following information:

1. Name, institutional affiliation, postal address, e-mail address, and phone number(s) of the paper's author(s) or panel chair;
2. A concise professional biography of the paper's author(s) or panel chair;
3. The title and an abstract of the paper or of the panel.

The deadline for submission is August 15, 2015. Proposals should be sent to Dr. Irene Queiro-Tajalli at itka100@iupui.edu or via U.S. mail addressed to her at Indiana University School of Social Work, 902 West New York Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202-5156.

For information regarding DĀNESH Institute, please visit: http://www.daneshinstitute.org.
For information about the CEUS Department, please visit: http://www.indiana.edu/~ceus/.

The Conference Planning Committee includes Drs. Cyrus Behroozi, Jamsheed Choksy, Paul Losensky, Irene Queiro-Tajalli, Sholeh Shahrokhi, and Bita Zakeri.