In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the birth of the Finnish composer Jean Sibelius (1865–1957), the Finnish language program in the Department of Central Eurasian Studies will show the biographical film Sibelius (2003) on Thursday, November 19 at 5pm in WH111.

The screening is preceded by two introductions on Sibelius and the historic context depicted in the film by Elina Pitkanen and Mikko Taurama.

The film is 120 minutes long and is in Finnish, Swedish, and German with English subtitles. Introductions take about 20 minutes in total. For inquiries, contact mtaurama@indiana.edu.
