

TABLE 2. List of Non-indigenous crayfish species occurring in Indiana waters. Range: Statewide (I), north (N), south (S), west (W), east (E), and various combinations of these regions. Relative abundance : R = rare; C = common; O = occasional. Conservation status: NI = nonindigenous, E = exotic.

SYSTEMATICS	RANGE	RELATIVE ABUNDANCE STATUS
Order Decapoda
Family Cambaridae (crayfish)
Genus Procambarus
Subgenus Scapulicambarus
Procambarus clarkii (Girard), red swamp crayfish	NW, SW	R	NI
 NOTE: P. clarkii is native to SW Indiana, but NI to NW portions of the state.
Genus Orconectes
Subgenus Procericambarus
Orconectes rusticus (Girard), rusty crayfish	I	C	NI

NOTE: O. rusticus is native to the Whitewater and Maumee River basins, but NI elsewhere