82 Names: Syria Please Don’t Forget Us shares the story of Mansour Omari, a survivor of torture and imprisonment in Syria, who risked his life to document atrocity crimes and bring that evidence to the world.

STUDENT WELCOME
Abbey Krulik

INTRODUCTION
Dean Lee Feinstein

SPEAKERS
Asaad Alsaleh, Hamilton Lugar School
Mina Abdelmalak, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum
Nidal Betare, People Demand Change
Naomi Kikoler, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

PHOTO: When Mansour Omari was released from prison in Syria, he smuggled out these scraps of cloth sewn within the shirt he was wearing. The names of his cellmates are written on them with an ink made from blood and rust. US Holocaust Memorial Museum