Additional Internship Opportunities

CDS International
A non-profit organization that, for a fee, places students in internships in Argentina, Germany, and Spain. Some of the internships provide a small living stipend.

Cook Medical Summer Internship Program
Internship opportunities become available in December-January. Interested students should apply by clicking on “United States” at the bottom of the page. Select “Interns” in the Job Category section and then click Search.

Exodus Refugee Immigration
Internship opportunities become available on a need-to basis.

Internships at Google
Fall paid internships are advertised in early summer.

International Center at Indianapolis
The International Center offers approximately eight unpaid internships every spring, summer, and fall. Working with The International Center gives undergraduate and graduate students a variety of opportunities to connect with local and international leaders, improve professional skills, and work in a fast paced international environment.

International Security Internships
A database of internships in Washington D.C. if you are interested in gaining practical experience regarding national and international security issues.

One Laptop per Child
Contact the organization for available internships.

Peace Corps
Volunteer and internship opportunities are available year round.

AIESEC
International internships for both current students and recent graduates.

Help Exchange (HelpX)
HelpX is an online listing of host organic farms, non-organic farms, farmstays, homestays, ranches, lodges, B&Bs, backpackers hostels and even sailing boats who invite volunteer helpers to stay with them short-term in exchange for food and accommodation.

ProWorld
International internships in a variety of locations and capacities.
