By-laws of the Bloomington Advisors’ Council
(Updated 3.28.08)

Article I. Name and Acronym

The name of this association shall be the Bloomington Advisors’ Council. The official acronym of the Council shall be BAC.

Article II. Mission Statement

The mission of the Bloomington Advisors’ Council (BAC) is to promote quality academic advising at Indiana University, Bloomington. To this end, it is dedicated to the support and professional growth of advisors. BAC serves its constituency in academic and student affairs concerned with the intellectual, developmental, personal and vocational needs of students. It is the forum for discussion, debate, and exchange of ideas regarding academic advising on the Bloomington campus. BAC is the official representative and advocate of academic advising and academic advisors on the Indiana University, Bloomington campus.

Article III. Alliance with the National Academic Advising Association

BAC is allied with the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) and supports the goals and programs of NACADA.

Article IV. Membership

Section 4.01 Equal Opportunity

The membership and opportunities for leadership shall be open to all individuals meeting membership eligibility requirements. There shall be no discrimination for reasons of religion, age, race or color, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, or disability.

Section 4.02 Eligibility

Regular memberships shall be open to faculty, administrators, counselors, advisors, graduate students, and other members of the IU Bloomington community whose interest is in the area of academic advising.

Section 4.03 Termination of membership by Steering Committee

A. Individual members of BAC may be terminated by a two-thirds vote of the Steering Committee for conduct which in any way tends to be injurious to the Council or its members, or which tends to adversely affect its reputation or which is contrary to or destructive of its objectives. A simple majority of the current membership units must be present.

B. It is the right of the individual whose membership has been terminated to file a written appeal with the Steering Committee; however, its decision regarding the appeal will be final.

Section 4.04 Endorsement
No member of the Council shall use the name or logo of Bloomington Advisors’ Council (BAC) as an endorsement for personal gain.

Article V. Meetings of the Membership

The Annual Meeting of BAC shall be held between January 15 and March 15. Additional meetings may be called by the Steering Committee.

Article VI. Officers

Section 6.01 Positions and Tenure

A. The officers of the Council shall consist of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

B. Each officer shall serve for a term of two years. The President and Treasurer will serve their term concurrently, as will the Vice President and Secretary. Terms commence on May 15 of each year.

Section 6.02 Election of Officers

A. The President and Treasurer will be elected during the even numbered years and the Vice President and Secretary will be elected during odd numbered years at or prior to the annual meeting.

B. During the fall semester, the BAC President will inform membership of the officer positions due for election and will poll the membership for nominations.

C. Members may self-nominate other BAC members. An individual nominated by others must agree in writing or by e-mail to be a candidate for the position.

D. The President will present all nominations to the Steering Committee for approval. The Steering Committee will base approval on each candidate’s experience, support of BAC and its mission and ability to contribute to the organization. Candidacy approval will be granted by a simple majority vote of Steering Committee members present at the meeting of discussion.

E. Should vacant officer positions be without candidate, the Steering Committee will solicit and appoint a candidate from the membership. The appointed individual must agree to the candidacy.

F. Voting may be conducted and completed by electronic or paper ballot up to two weeks prior to the annual meeting.

G. Candidates receiving a simple majority of all votes will be the new officers.

H. Results of the election process will be announced at the business meeting during the annual meeting. In the event of ties, a run-off election will be held during the business meeting of the annual meeting. Ties not resolved by run-off election will be broken by a simple majority vote of the Steering Committee members present at the meeting of discussion.
