Internship and Career Fair Prep

Presented by Andy Bosk, Assistant Director, Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services
Tuesday, 9/6/2011   7-8 pm   Hutton Honors College, Room 108

Are you planning on attending the Fall Career and Internship Fair on September 21st (4-7pm Alumni Hall, Indiana Memorial Union)? If so, this workshop is a great way to prepare, gather valuable information, and gain confidence. In preparation for the upcoming fair, the Career Development Center will host a career fair preparation workshop for Hutton Honors College students interested in obtaining internships and/or full-time jobs. Topics to be addressed will include writing a “pitch,” employer research, document preparation, career fair attire, and strategies for navigating a career fair. Please rsvp for this event to hammonda@indiana.edu if you plan to attend.

Getting to Know the CDC

Presented by Jan Van Dyke Senior Assistant Director, Career Resources Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services
Thursday, 9/8/2011   7-8pm   Hutton Honors College, Room 108

In addition to organizing dozens of career fairs, employer information sessions, on-campus interviews with recruiters, and career workshops, the CDC offers many other services to IU students, including drop-in and hour-long career advising sessions, a library with over 1,000 books, access to online resources for jobs and internships, career panels and workshops, and courses on career exploration, portfolio design, and job search strategies. Come and find out all that the CDC has to offer you! Please rsvp for this event to hammonda@indiana.edu if you plan to attend.
