Teach For America is a national corps of outstanding recent college graduates and professionals from all academic backgrounds who commit to teaching in a low-income community for two years. This year, 9,300 corps members are teaching in 43 regions across the country, while more than 30,000 Teach For America alumni continue working from inside and outside the field of education for the fundamental changes necessary to ensure educational excellence and equity.

Week on Campus Program: October 10th – 13th, 2011

The Achievement Gap and Teach For America’s Impact
This information session will provide attendees with a logistical overview of the program and its mission. In addition, the moderator and panelists will discuss the impact corps members and alumni have for students in low-income communities as educators, advocates, and community leaders. Refreshments will be served.
Date: 10/10  Time: 5:00pm  Location: Career Development Center (625 North Jordan Avenue)

Kelley Student Information Session
Teach For America is an unparalleled opportunity to assume a unique management role—leading a classroom of students, setting ambitious goals, and inspiring your students to meet those goals. Top-ranked employers and business schools have partnered with Teach For America because they value corps members’ experience and unique leadership skills, and Business Week even ranks Teach For America as the 7th Best Place to Start a Career. Find out more by attending this information session and hearing from alumni who have been successful in the classroom and in the business field. Refreshments will be served.
Date: 10/11  Time: 5:30pm  Location: BU301

Teach For America Application Workshop
Teach For America representatives will present about Teach For America’s selection model, give an overview of the application process, and offer tips for how to stand out as an applicant.
