The 2012 Fall Career and Internship Fair is coming on Wednesday, September 19, 2012 at the Harry Gladstein Fieldhouse here on campus. IUB students enrolled in scholarship programs have the unique opportunity to meet with employers for two hours before the general student population. Are you prepared for the fair? Do you know what to wear? Do you know what to say to prospective employers? The Career Development Center can help you answer these and other questions about career fair etiquette. Join us the week before fair so you can feel confident and prepared for this great event.

The first two hours of the fair (2-4 p.m.) are open to students from the following scholarship programs at IUB:
