There are a number of nationally-competitive awards available for post-graduate activities and the deadlines for them are early in the fall. It is never too early to learn about what to expect if you decide to apply later in your undergraduate career. At the events listed below, we will discuss the application processes and selection criteria and there will be ample time for Q & A.

- Wednesday March 30 - Two (identical) presentations to learn about the Schwarzman Scholarship - 2:30 - 3:30 - 4034 Hodge Hall & 6:30 - 7:30 - Great Room, Hutton Honors College
  - Schwarzman scholarships fund a year of graduate level study (in English) at Tsinghua University in Beijing for students in Public Policy, Economics, Business or International Studies. A Schwarzman representative will be on campus to discuss the application and selection process.

- Fulbright Friday April 1 – 3:30 – 4:30 – HHC Room 108 – Information about applying for a Fulbright award. Fulbright awards provide funding for research or study in a variety of disciplines and for teaching English. At this session, we will review the procedures for applying for a Fulbright in the fall and hear from a recent recipient of a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant position. More at: US Student Fulbright Program. Repeat ‘Fulbright Friday’ info sessions will be on April 15 & 29 (same time and location). Students can join a Canvas site to access modules that will guide them through the application process. To be added to the site, email the Fulbright program adviser for undergraduates, Paul Fogleman (pfoglema@indiana.edu).

- Monday April 18th – 5:30 – 6:30pm – HHC Room 108 - Information about Rhodes, Marshall, Mitchell, Churchill and Gates Cambridge scholarships. More information about these opportunities available at the IUCARE webpage: Post-Graduate Study in the United Kingdom or Ireland.

- Wednesday April 27 – 5:30 – 6:30 – HHC Room 108 - Learn about domestic opportunities such as Americorps and City Year and awards to teach English in other countries. Presentation will also address how to gain instructional/teaching experience as an undergraduate. We will be joined by a recent recipient of an English teaching Fulbright award.

- Ongoing Competitive Award Application Workshops taking place until April 20. Students can attend any of the workshops and all materials provided on a Canvas site. Email workshop coordinator, Paul Fogleman (pfoglema@indiana.edu) to be added to the site.
