This class meets with SPEA-V 378. This is an honors class only for students who have applied and been accepted into SPEA’s Washington Leadership Program (WLP). Any IU student may apply to the WLP Program which offers a semester in Washington, DC working at an internship (6 credits) and taking two classes (6 credits). The students may also take one of the classes for honors. This listing is for the WLP honors class. The students for the Spring 2012 WLP program have been chosen. If you are interested in applying for the WLP semester in Washington, DC for Fall 2012 or future semesters, please go to the SPEA web site or contact SPEA for additional information.